Foreword

You have taken a look through the star that leads you to the treasure house of unforgettable memories. As you observe further, we, the members of the Senior Class, hope that you will look upon each star as precious jewels dear to those who will never forget the past.

Our theme, "Goals are like stars; they may not be reached, but can always be a guide," clearly indicates our desire to achieve.

Class of
"68"

The class of 1968 is finishing another plateau on its long journey. We are completing a beginning cycle of learning and are now looking forward to our next giant step into the future. As we approach graduation and look back over our last four years, we are mindful of our deep gratitude to our wonderful advisors for their unstinting service and devotion to our class.

To our faithful advisors, we, the class of 1968, dedicate this edition of the "Warrior". This is one of our ways of showing our appreciation for their patience, prodding, sacrificial help, and insistance on a job well done.

Much success in the future, B.a.
Sweet cousin.

The Principal's Message

It gives me profound pleasure to bring greetings from the principal's desk. The efforts of the Class of 1968 in producing this yearbook signal the closing months leading to graduation.

In all aspects, you seemingly have developed intellectual and spiritual leadership which is essential in such a world as ours today. Without leaders of such capacity, the bountiful resources of our nation will be frittered away.

We here at J. T. Barber High School are exceptionally proud of your accomplishments. You exhibit on these pages a brief, but sufficient account of your contributions, in hope that they will inspire those who follow you. However, you must remember that in order to reach any worthwhile destination, a goal must first be set. In all cases, this goal will not be attainable, but as your theme suggests, it can serve as a guide which can result in success and prosperity.

My sincere congratulations are extended to the Yearbook Staff and the 1968 graduating class.

Sincerely yours,

G. C. Fields, Principal

Mrs. E. T. Moore, Secretary

Sincere congratulations are extended to the graduating class of 1968. You are now at the threshold of a new and challenging life.

Your greatest need now is the vision of an attainable goal. Then, an unfaltering determination and an untiring effort are needed to make your vision a reality.

The honor of J. T. Barber High School is the achievements of her graduates.

Best wishes,

H. J. MacDonald

"Get out! And take that shameless hussy with you. You'll never get a cent out of me!

"You don't have to disinherit me. I'll disavow you."

"What's going on here?"

"A man----- He tried to kill me!"

"Come on, get these things on, you're going to jail!"

Miss J. T. Barber

Every year from the Senior Class comes grace, personality and charm rolled into one individual. This year, the lovely and radiant Miss Gail C. Bryant became the honorable Miss J. T. Barber. She possesses high moral standards, that are not only an asset to the school but to the community as well.

Junior-Senior Prom

Spring has come. The prom committee of the Junior class of 66-67 has been working diligently to present to the Seniors a prom that will always be a tender spot in their memories.

Miss Homecoming

The radiant Miss Willie Humphrey presents herself to the public as Miss Homecoming for the year 1968. She possesses all the qualities of Barber's royalty. She, as all Barber students, is characterized by good school spirit. She is a leader in this capacity and therefore proves to be a most worthy representative of the John Thomas Barber High School.

Dearest
Larry,
Words can barely express the way I feel towards you now that you are leaving. I hardly have enough time. But it's all the effort that I have really tried I'll say it in a briefer form. You know I have always admired you every since our Algebra 4 class together and I'm up to now. My feelings for you are even deeper maybe it's because I've seldom realized what you really meant to me. At this momentous minute the feelings in my heart are coming. You will always have a protected place within my heart. Although we never got hitched there is still another chance and you can count believe me when that time does come I'll grab at the offer. I have always admired you and always will. Although we may never see each other again I wish you the best of luck in the near future. I always thought your interest was else where and you likewise but now it's too late but there will come a time.

Forever
